

Ihr Lieben,

Ungewöhnliche Zeiten erfordern ungewöhnliche Maßnahmen. So gibt es nun noch mehr Aufgaben von mir für euch. Ein paar Dinge hatte ich euch ja am letzten Freitag, als wir alle schon ahnten, dass wir uns erstmal nicht wieder sehen würden, schon an die Tafel geschrieben. Nun haben Frau Aydin, Frau Burgstedt und ich überlegt, was für euch noch sinnvoll wäre. Wie ich euch erzählt habe, werden wir im Mai, wenn alle Real-und Hauptschüler die Prüfungen schreiben, für die drei A-Kurse mündliche Prüfungen abhalten. Diese sollt ihr nun vorbereiten. Alles weitere findet ihr weiter unten. Meine eindrückliche Bitte: Trefft euch nur virtuell, nicht „in echt“, um die Dialoge vorzubereiten. Solltet ihr irgendwelche Fragen haben, dann könnt ihr mir unter:

k.antenbring@gmx.de eine Mail schreiben und ich werde euch zeitnah antworten.

Ich wünsche euch für die kommenden Wochen ein gutes Durchhaltevermögen, passt auf euch auf und bleibt gesund!!!

Liebe Grüße, K. Antenbring

And now in English 😊 ....

Part 1: Work on the exercises that I have already written on the board on Friday. When the schools are open again after the Easter holidays we will write the English test (about "How to write a CV/formal letter, a mediation/reading or listening), we are planning to set the test date on April 30th. We have to wait and see.

PART 2: Preparation of dialogues for the oral exam in May

On page 2 you can see a list with different topics for the dialogues. On the day of the exam you will be given one topic out 10 possible topics which you should prepare in 30 minutes. So, you need to be prepared for all 10 possible topics by then.

When you're finished with the first part of the exercises you have to prepare useful phrases and topic vocabulary for the 2 topics you were assigned. Look for your name on the list at the bottom.

1. You and your partner should create a mind map with subcategories (Unterkategorien) for each topic.
2. What can tell your partner for example : if he or she needs some advice? Which words, phrases, sentences can be useful ? Collect ideas.
3. Do some research: look up vocabulary and useful phrases online, e.g. on the following websites
  - 🕒 <https://www.englishclub.com/vocabulary/topic.htm>
  - 🕒 <https://www.thoughtco.com/beginner-dialogues-in-a-shop-1210040>
  - 🕒 <http://www.englishwithjo.com/category/english-conversation-lessons/>
  - 🕒 https://www.examenglish.com/vocabulary/B1\_vocabulary\_topics.htm
4. Put all the words, phrases and sentences together in your mind map. Add more categories if you need.
5. Practice at least one dialogue with one of your partners by using video chat apps for your mobile phone/tablet or calling your partner. You have to act out the dialogue after the Easter holidays.
